To: GDS and Chairs in the Social Sciences and Humanities
From: Stephen Hill, Sr. Associate Director, Office of Fellowships
RE: Disallowed Fulbright-Hays DDRA locations
Date: 3/24/16

Please inform your eligible graduate students that the following locations are not open to Fulbright-Hays Doctoral Dissertation Research Abroad applicants. The 2016 Fulbright-Hays DDRA competition is officially open. The national deadline is May 6th, 2016. The campus deadline is April 22 @ 12:00 noon. Kindly 1) remind your students that they must work through this office to complete their application, and 2) that the application is quite involved, thus they should start immediately to assemble their materials. Distribute the attached flyer of information workshops.

Please note that applications that propose projects focused on the following countries are not eligible: Andorra, Austria, Belgium, Cyprus, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Liechtenstein, Luxembourg, Malta, Monaco, Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, San Marino, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, United Kingdom, United States and its territories, or Vatican City.

In addition, the following countries/locations are disallowed:

Afghanistan
Angola
Burundi
Central African Republic
Cuba
Marshall Islands *
Djibouti
Egypt
Gambia
Gaza
Haiti – should be discussed with us
Iran
Iraq
Lebanon
Libya
Mali
Mauritania Micronesia *
North Korea
Somalia
South Sudan
Syria
Yemen

* not open to DOS Fulbright as there are no PD officers or LE staff to provide support