

Summer Research Opportunity Program (SROP)

Northwestern
THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

Summer Research Opportunity Program (SROP)

June 18, 2018 - August 9, 2018

Program Benefits

- Conduct research with a Northwestern faculty member
- Orientation programming
- Professional development workshops
- GRE prep classes
- Research Forum and Poster Session
- Networking events with faculty and graduate students

Eligibility

- U.S. citizen or permanent resident
- Currently a sophomore or junior
- Cumulative GPA of at least 3.3 on a 4.0 scale
- Interest in pursuing a doctoral degree (PhD) at Northwestern
- Traditionally under-represented students are strongly encouraged to apply

Participant Benefits

- $4,500 stipend
- University housing (single rooms)
- $200 campus meal subsidy
- Round-trip travel to Northwestern's campus
- Application fee waiver
- Early Admissions Decision Program for rising seniors

Learn more and apply at www.tgs.northwestern.edu/diversity/undergraduate-summer-research

Any questions? Email TGSDiversity@northwestern.edu